SECTION 2. Transfers. Shares represented by any certificate shall be transferable only as an entirety on the books of the corporation by the holder in person or by attorney, upon surrender of the certificate for such shares.

SECTION 3. Restrictions on Transfers.

A. No stockholder shall have the right or power to pledge, sell, alienate or otherwise dispose of any share or shares of the capital stock of the corporation without first offering said share or shares of stock for sale to the corporation for the aggregate sum which such stockholder paid for said stock.

B. Such offer shall be made in writing, signed by such stockholder, and sent by mail to the corporation in a postpaid wrapper to the post office address of the corporation, at its principal place of business, and such offer shall remain good for acceptance by the corporation or a person designated by the corporation for a period of ninety days from the date of mailing such notice. Such offer shall constitute the corporation an agent for the sale of the shares of stock to the corporation or to such person who may be designated by the corporation.

C. If the corporation, or person designated by it, within the said ninety-day period, shall indicate that it, or the person designated by it, desires to purchase said shares of stock and shall give notice thereof in writing to the retiring stockholder, the latter shall be bound, within thirty days thereafter to transfer such shares to the corporation or the person designated by the corporation, upon payment and receipt of the price herein provided.

D. In the event that the corporation or the person designated by the corporation shall not purchase said share or shares of capital stock of the corporation within said ninety-day period, then and in such event only the stockholder shall have the right or power to pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of said share or shares of the capital stock of the corporation to any person acceptable to the corporation, provided such person shall, upon the transfer of said shares, enter into a lease with the corporation for the premises formerly occupied by the retiring stockholder for a term and upon the same terms and conditions contained in the lease between the stockholder and the corporation, except that the specified annual rental to be paid by such person shall be an amount equal to the stockholder's proportionate share of the cash requirements of the corporation under the lease; the corporation will not, however, unreasonably withhold its acceptance of any person to whom the stockholder proposes to sell such shares and/or debentures as aforesaid. The corporation agrees to enter into a new lease with any such person upon the terms and conditions aforesaid and to cause to transfer to the name of such person on the books of the corporation the shares of the capital stock of the corporation owned by the stockholder and so sold to such person.

In the event that the stockholder does not sell his stock to any person within six months after his right to do so has accrued, then and in such event, he must again notify the corporation of his intent to transfer his shares and he shall again be bound by the provisions of Paragraphs A, B, C and D of this Section 3 of Article VII.

E. If in any case the retiring stockholder, after becoming bound to sell, convey or transfer his share to the corporation (or such other person as may be designated by this corporation), defaults in transferring said shares, the corporation (or such other person as may be designated by the corporation) shall, after notice to and approval by the Comptroller of the City of New York, hold the purchase money in trust for the retiring stockholder, or his executors, administrators or assigns and shall substitute the name of the purchaser upon the books of the company in place of the name of the retiring stockholder. After the name of the purchaser has been entered on the books of the corporation in the exercise of the aforesaid powers, the validity of the proceedings shall not be questioned by any person and the corporation (or such other person or corporation as may be designated by this corporation) shall be deemed and taken to be the owner of such shares.

F. In the event that the stockholder shall have defaulted in the payment of any obligation arising under his lease with the corporation or shall, apart from said lease, become indebted to the corporation, or in the event of the termination of the lease or the recovery of possession of the apartment by the lessor under any of the provisions of the lease, or in the event of the violation by the stockholder of any provisions of Section 3 of Article VII of these By-Laws, the stockholder shall forthwith surrender to the corporation the certificate representing the shares of capital stock of the corporation owned by the stockholder and upon the failure or refusal of the stockholder so to surrender said shares of stock, the same shall, after notice to and approval by the Comptroller of the City of New York, be automatically cancelled and rendered null and void and the corporation may issue a new certificate or certificates in their place and stead and such new certificate or certificates shall represent the same shares as were represented by the original certificate or certificates. The stock represented by the certificate or certificates so surrendered or by such new certificate or certificates may be sold by the corporation at public or private sale without notice, and the proceeds applied toward all indebtedness of the stockholder, and the corporation shall remit any balance after payment of the expenses of sale, to the stockholder.

G. No stockholder shall have the right or power to pledge or otherwise encumber any share or shares of the corporation which may have been issued by the corporation at the time of the issuance of its stock. In the event of such pledging or other encumbrance of said stock, the corporation shall, in the discretion of its Board of Directors, have all the rights described in Paragraph F of Section 3 of Article VII.

H. The provisions of this Article VII shall be binding upon any executor, administrator or other legal representative of every stockholder, in case of the sale or pledging of any share or shares of stock by such executors, administrators or other legal representatives of any stockholder. Any person acquiring through will, or descent, or by conveyance to take effect at death, any share or shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be bound to offer the same for sale and transfer to the corporation upon the terms hereinabove set forth in this Section 3 of Article VII of the By-Laws.

I. The certificates of stock shall bear a legend to the effect that the certificate shall not be transferable or assignable and that no rights shall be obtained in or to the shares represented thereby unless the terms, covenants, conditions and provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of this Article VII have been fulfilled.

SECTION 4. The corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any share or shares of the corporation of capital stock as the holder in fact thereof, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share on the part of any other person whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as expressly provided by the laws of New York.

SECTION 5. The corporation shall have a lien upon the shares of stock of any stockholder and upon all moneys due and owing by the corporation to any stockholder for any and all debts owed to the corporation by such stockholder.
